UNITED STATES WILL REMAIN IN CONTROL

Until Cuba Substantially Agrees to the Platt Amendment.

POSITION OF THE GOVERNMENT IS FIRM UPON THIS MATTER

Conservative Element Say This Will Place the Radicals in Control and May Cause the Americans Serious Difficulties Before It is Settled.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—It is officially stated that the United States will remain in control in Cuba, until the Platt Amendment has been "substantially" adopted. This was announced by Secretary Root and his action has been approved by the President.

New York June 1.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Havana says: Washington advice regarding possible complications over the acceptance of the appendix to the constitution have caused some uneasiness among the members who secured its adoption, but the disposition is to await official information.

Inquiry showed that there is no probability that the convention would make further changes in the form in which the acceptance was couched. Opinion is pronounced that such an attempt would disrupt the conservative forces, which succeeded in having the Platt amendment interpreted and adopted and would place the Radicals in full control of the situation.

Most of the delegates who voted for acceptance say that the subject is concluded and the only left for the convention now is to frame and select a law or else to be dissolved by military authority and the status quo remain unchanged. They do not anticipate the latter alternative. Some of them criticize the reports that the convention was not expected to incorporate the substance of the interviews with Secretary Root and say that this criticism should have been formulated earlier, since such a purpose has been manifested by the convention since the return from Washington.

Gualberto Gomez and other Radicals have raised the same point that seems to have been raised by United States Senators. This was that while the present National Administration might feel bound by the terms of the interviews, as embodied in the appendix, future administrations or Congresses would not be bound. The reply of the Conservatives was that acceptance was only a means of preparing the way for the negotiation of a treaty with the United States which would ensure defining the relations of Cuba on a permanent basis. This argument secured the majority.

The prospective withdrawal of the American troops is not looked on here as likely to become a serious question. Radical Cubans are quite temperate on that subject. The prevailing opinion is that the presence of the troops will not be questioned until the final steps in the formation of a Cuban Government are completed.

The conservative political elements and commercial influences, which were preparing to participate in the formation of a government, deprecate the bad effects of the intervention.

He Has Saved My Life

State of Oregon,)
County of Clatsop,) ss. Salem, Ore., May 1, 1900
To whom these presents shall come Greeting:
This is to certify that I have been afflicted with Gravel for a number of years, and have tried every remedy known to me, without the use of knife, plaster or poisonous drugs, and that I am entirely cured, and as I believe permanently cured, I cheerfully recommend Dr. Cook to all persons afflicted as I was. I feel that he has saved my life. My home is three miles south of Turner, Oregon.

MRS. CAROLINE ROTTZOLL, Said for Clatsop County, testifying to the fact that she has been afflicted with Gravel for a number of years, and has been cured by Dr. Cook.

W. W. HALL, County Clerk.

Do Not Listen to "Cappers"
Who are hired to defame me and my methods of treatment. If I could not cure people there would be no use to fight me. It is because I do cure people that I am persecuted. I am not a quack, but a man who has cured hundreds of people whose cases have been pronounced hopeless by the "old school" physicians. The doctor has devoted the best years of his life to the study of disease, and the use and action of Nature's vegetable remedies, and he is known absolutely just what he can do. This gives him confidence.

Dr. J. F. Cook Botanical Physician Cures all kinds of diseases. Office: 301 Liberty St. Salem, Or.

fects of a hitch now, but, while uneasy at the prospect, they have full confidence in the Washington authorities and are not alarmed.

The municipal campaign has closed and today (Saturday) the Mayors and Aldermen will be elected throughout the island. The chief feature of the Havana campaign has been the great reception given to Montoro and other old autonomist leaders at a meeting of the Union Democratic Society. It was larger than the rallies of either Nationalists or Republicans.

Montoro's fame was the magnet which drew the crowd. Cuban politicians all admit the significance of his welcome. He spoke for Carlos Garcia, candidate for Mayor, but his speech went beyond local issues and announced an aggressive policy of recognizing Cuba's relation to the United States.

The only place where the municipal contest has become serious is in Santiago. Word has been received that various officials were resigning and that the other parties would not go to the polls because the Nationalists, under the leadership of Corrozo, a radical anti-Platt delegate to the convention were insisting that the presence of American soldiers was necessary to insure a peaceful election.

Prominent Man Dies

Reception for Teachers

Mrs. J. L. Carter entertained yesterday afternoon, in honor of the teachers of the blind school, and a delightful time it was. The rooms were prettily decorated with roses, pink and ivory. About twenty-five ladies were present and the time was spent in social chat, interspersed with most exquisite vocal solos, rendered by Miss Ina Wright, a graduate of Ann Arbor Conservatory of Music. The music was a real treat for Miss Wright's voice is sweet, pure, and sympathetic. Dainty refreshments were served by Misses Byrd, Gabrielson, and Grace Carter. The pleasant time will long be remembered by the guests, as well as the teachers in whose honor these few friends were brought together.

SALEM POSTOFFICE CORNERSTONE LAYING

Facts About the Building and When It Will Be Completed.

Major Cramer, superintendent of construction, in charge of the building, came here March 5th; work was begun on March 11th, and has proceeded under considerable difficulty, securing material since May 1st, waiting for steel and granite supplies. Under his direction the entire program of the committee was constructed, but not for the Old Fellows alone, as has been published so often, they only leading and all the fraternal orders in the city having been invited to join with them on this occasion. Major Cramer at the proper time turned the occasion over to the officiating body with a patriotic speech, expressing the hope that the cornerstones would be laid with proper appreciation of our free institutions. This completed his connection with the exercise, which went off without a hitch. Major Cramer is on duty day and night and not a stone, not a brick, or shovelful of cement goes into the wall that he does not scrutinize and approve. He estimates that the building will be completed by February 22, 1902, the time limit, under the contract a penalty of $5 a day attaching after that date. Campbell, the president of the Campbell Building Co., who have the contract for the Salem postoffice, is doing all in his power to perform every detail of the work according to the strictest requirements of the government. He has selected the granite and stone setting to F. A. Erickson, and the frames for the windows and doors to Hansen & London.

Pacific University was Victorious.

The field contests at the Fairgrounds Friday afternoon between Salem students and Pacific University of Forest Grove, did not draw as large a crowd as was expected, there were hardly 500 admirers of athletic sports in attendance mostly Willamette.

The track was very slow, or there might have been a new record for the 325 which was done in 2:05-5. This is 325 above the record. Miller of Pacific proved to be the hero of the day winning 4 firsts and 1 second.

A Genuine Kimball Piano Free

Some of the enterprising merchants of the city have arranged to give away a piano in the following manner. With each 25 cents purchase made at the various stores represented in the deal, as given a blank ticket which entitles the purchaser to vote the piano to any school, lodge, church society or other organization in the city. The one having the most votes on Oct. 1st the piano will be given. There is no element of chance connected with the affair it being merely a question of getting enough votes cast for your favorite lodge or society.

Keeping off Bicycles.

According to the notice previously given, signs have been posted at the Southern Pacific passenger depot barring bicyclists from the platform. This will be a great aid to pedestrians when the platform is crowded and in event of an accident will relieve the company of a damage suit. It would be the interest of cycling if, when roads are passable, no wheels were allowed on any sidewalk.

Military Movements.

Several members of an Engineer Corps of the United States Army, from Minnesota, passed through Salem, this morning, going to San Francisco. The remainder of the Company stopped at the school officers will be joined by several new members before proceeding to San Francisco. They sail for Manila on June 6.

JOAQUIN MILLER A MILLIONAIRE

Stumbled Onto Land in Texas Oil Fields.

Wells on His Ranch Make Him Immensely Rich.

Special to Capital Journal:

EDGEMO, June 1.—Letters have been received here by relatives of Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, which leave little doubt that he has made a fortune. It seems that a few months ago he became tired of his California home and started for Texas with the idea of hunting a new location without any particular section in view. At any rate he got off the cars at the village of Beaumont, then obscure and unknown place, as it was still before the discovery of oil near there. He located where he thought he would be as nearly out of the world as possible, and to have room around him free from molestation he bought a thousand acres of land at merely nominal figure. But the poet was not to have the long-sought resting place in which to spend his declining years. All around him the great gushing oil wells have been discovered. Several of them have been bored on his ranch and "Joaquin" of wandering fame has been made immensely rich, probably a millionaire. He is happy as a lord. Once before he made his fortune on Wall street and as quickly lost it. His new fortune has already made him liberal as usual and he has already announced that he intends bequeathing his California home, "The Heights" with 100 acres near Oakland, to his children. Once before he made his fortune on Wall street and as quickly lost it. His new fortune has already made him liberal as usual and he has already announced that he intends bequeathing his California home, "The Heights" with 100 acres near Oakland, to his children. But the poet was not to have the long-sought resting place in which to spend his declining years. All around him the great gushing oil wells have been discovered. Several of them have been bored on his ranch and "Joaquin" of wandering fame has been made immensely rich, probably a millionaire. He is happy as a lord.
